Moses was adopted by the pharaoh's daughter and grew up in the palace. One day Moses did something really bad, he killed an Egyptian and so he ran away to live in the desert. He married a lady called Zipporah. One day when Moses was out looking after the sheep he saw a bush that was on fire but it did not burn up. Moses went to look at this strange sight and God spoke from inside the fire. "Moses, don't come any closer. Take off your sandals, you are on Holy ground," said the voice. Moses was scared, he covered his face. "I want you to bring my people out of Egypt." God told him. Moses did not think he could do it but God promised to help him. Moses returned to Egypt and told the Israelites that God was going to set them free. God sent Moses' brother Aaron to help him. The people fell on their knees and thanked God for remembering them.
