

Using Sketchbooks

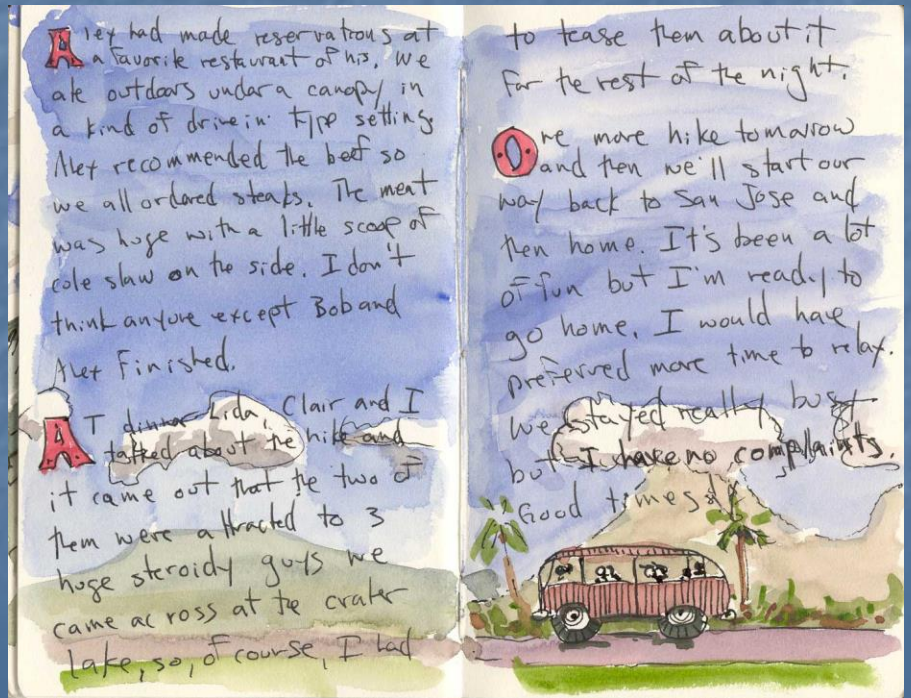

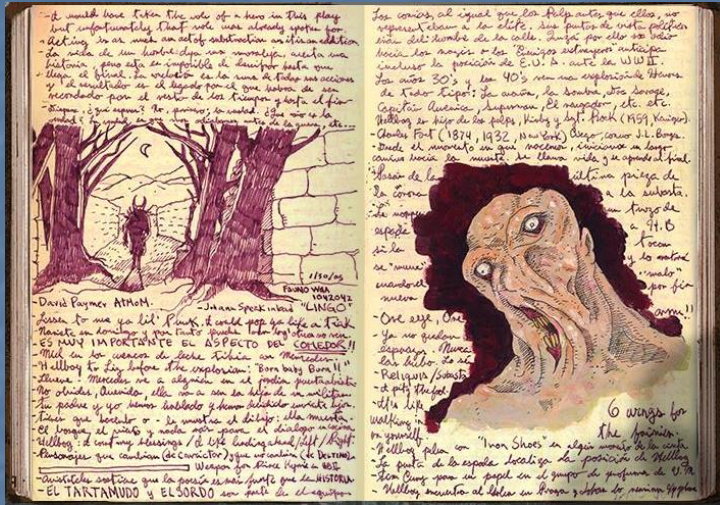

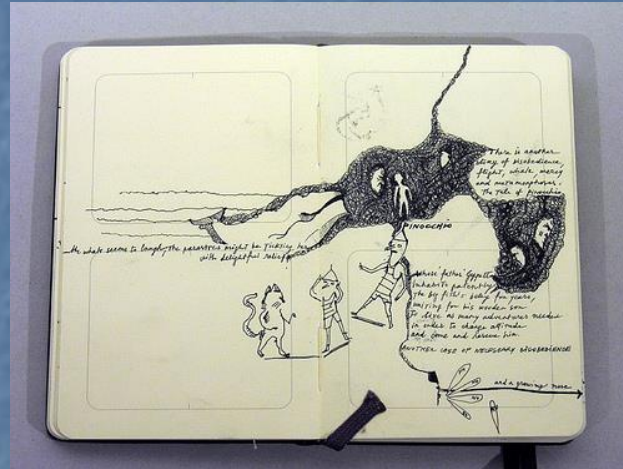

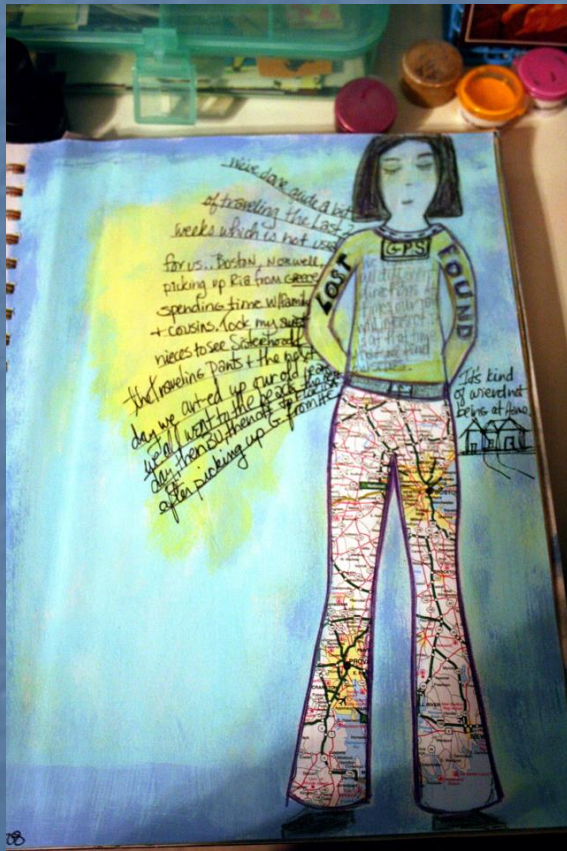

A personal journal

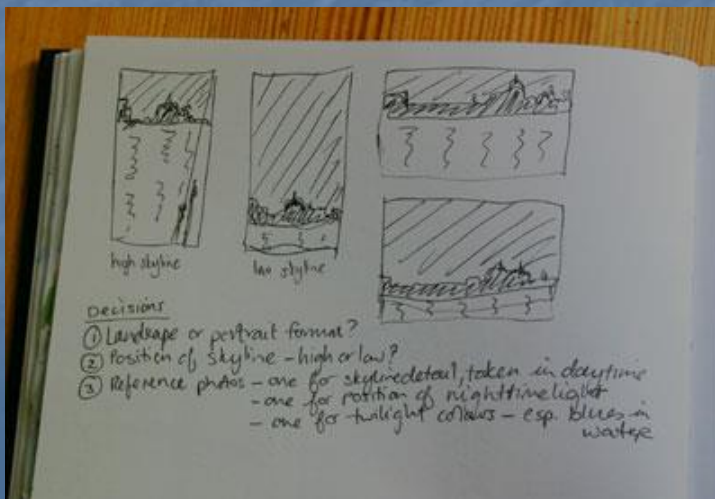

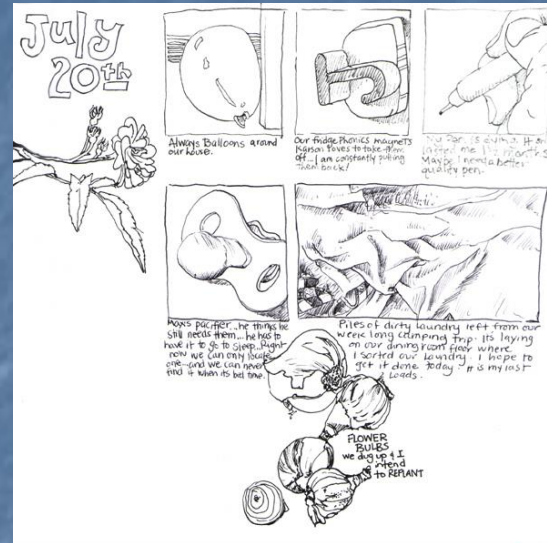

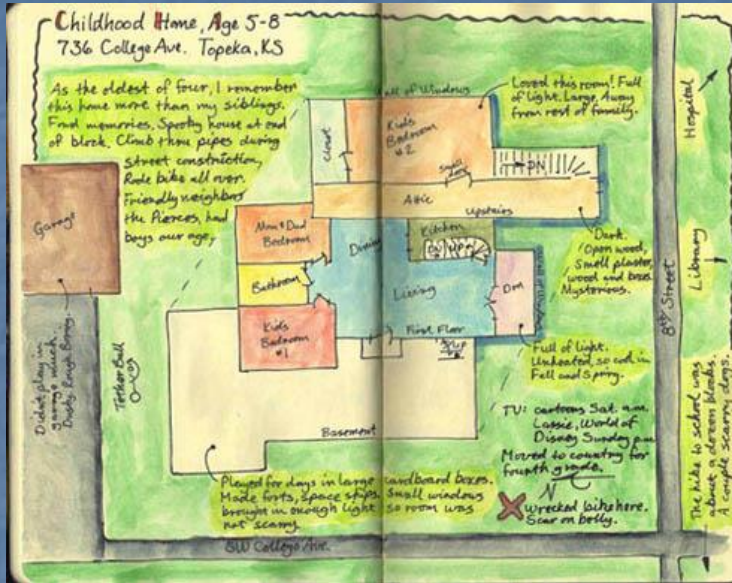

A visual ideas book

A space for planning and exploring ideas

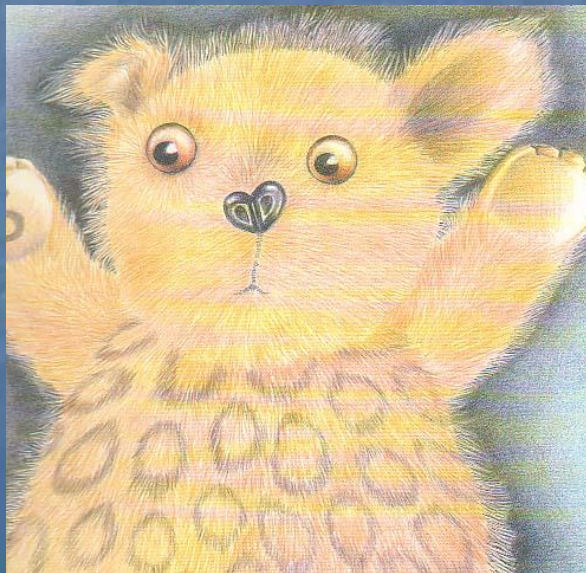

It can show the development of ideas and planning

A place for visual reference materials

A notebook on artists, media, and methods

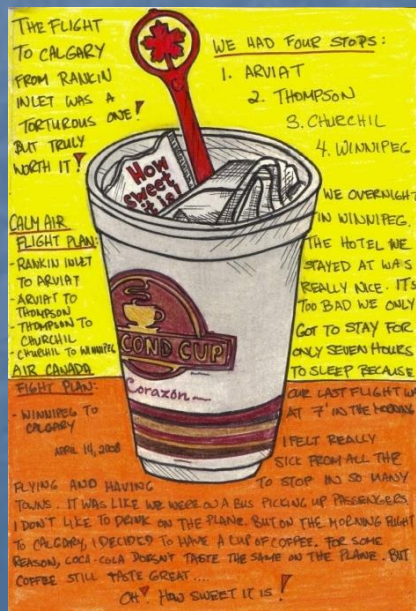

For experimenting with media

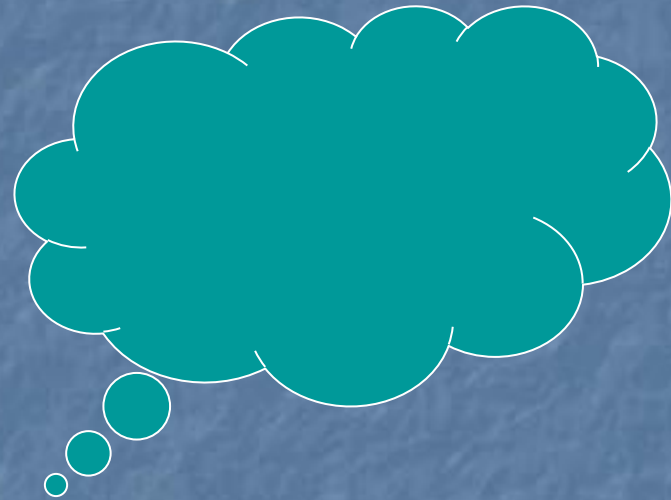

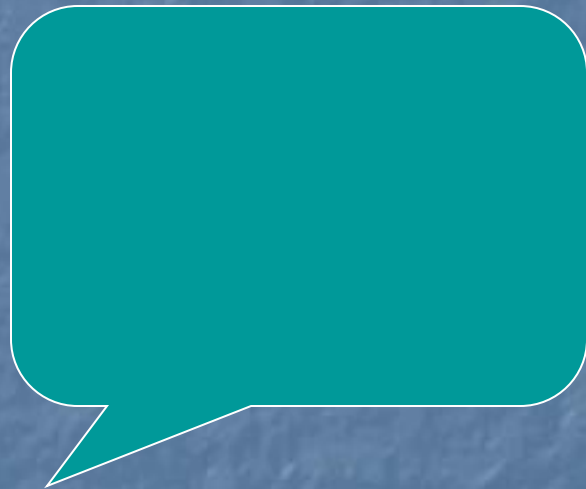

It can contain drawings, cuttings, colour experiments, collage, notes etc

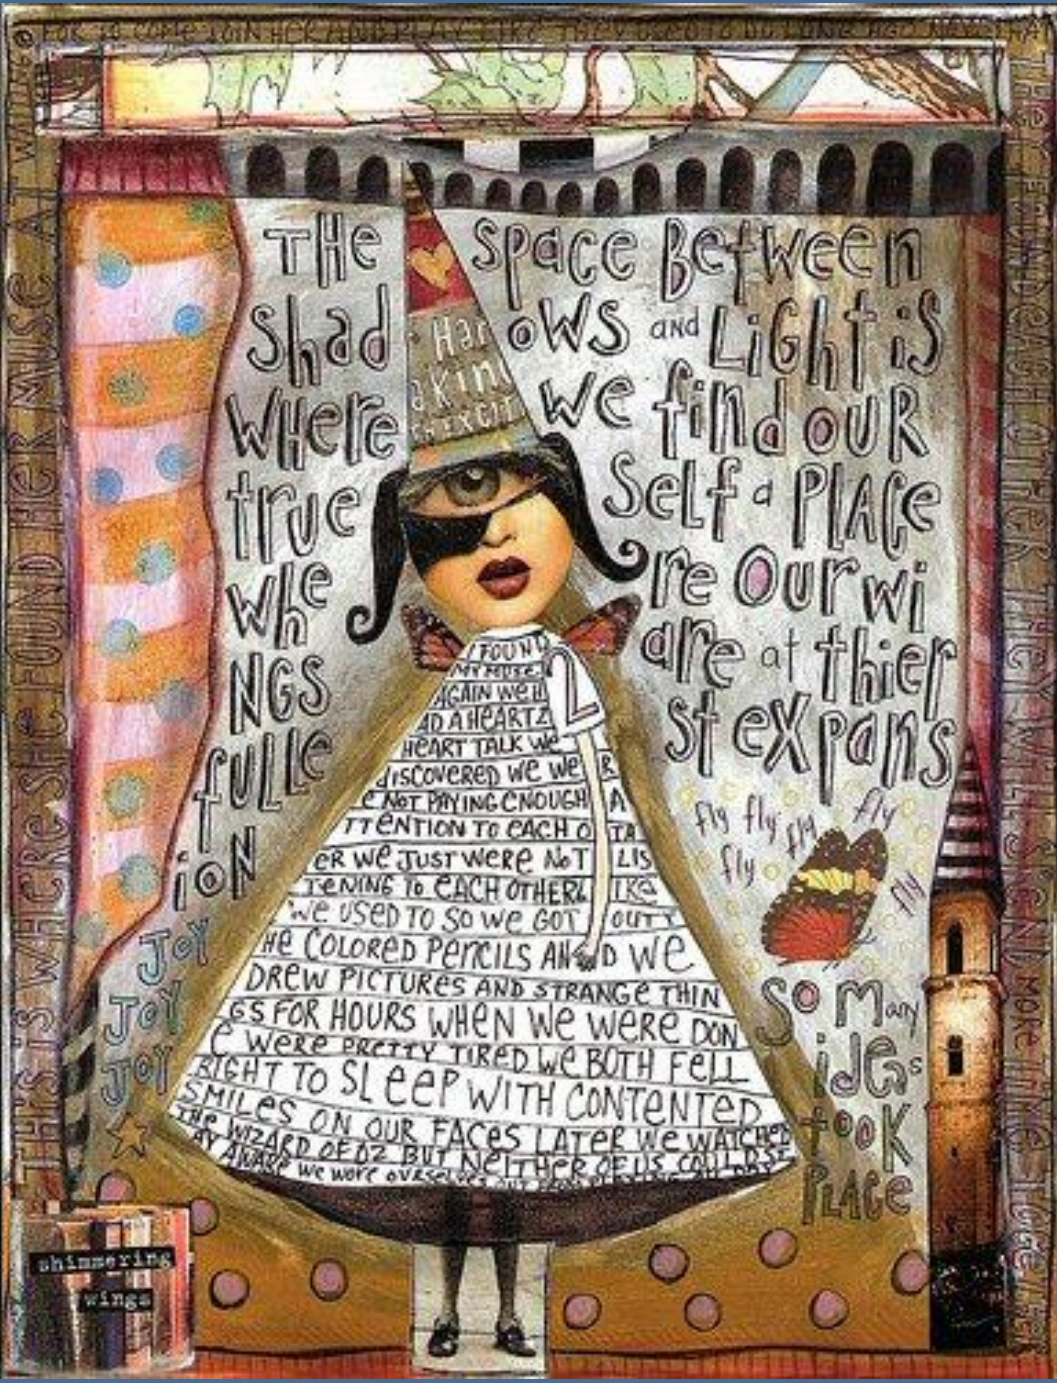

Photos of making work, and photos of larger and finished work could be stored here

A place for pupils to record what they think about their work and how they could develop it further

THIS IS WHERE SHE FOUND HER MUSE AT WILHELM

THEY FOUND OTHER THEY WOULD SEND MORE TIME TOGETHER

The space between shadows and light is where we find our true self a place where our wings are at their fullest expansion

FOUND MY MUSE
AGAIN WE HAD A HEART HEART TALK WE DISCOVERED WE WERE NOT TRYING ENOUGH
ATTENTION TO EACH OTHER
OR WE JUST WERE NOT LISTENING TO EACH OTHER
WE USED TO SO WE GOT THE COLORED PENCILS AND WE DREW PICTURES AND STRANGE THINGS
FOR HOURS WHEN WE WERE DONE
WE WERE PRETTY TIRED WE BOTH FELL
RIGHT TO SLEEP WITH CONTENTED
SMILES ON OUR FACES LATER WE WATCHED THE WIZARD OF OZ BUT NEITHER OF US COULD REALLY WE WERE OVERSLEEPING

fly fly fly
fly fly fly

so many wings took place
